GREEN LINE is SAFETY Line

The diagram illustrates the layout of a decal square. It features a central white square area. A green line, representing the safety line, is drawn around the perimeter of this central area. A red line, representing the cut line, is drawn further out, creating a margin around the green line. A blue line, representing the end of bleed line, is drawn at the very edge of the page. Three horizontal double-headed arrows are positioned below the central area: a green arrow spanning the width of the green line, a red arrow spanning the width of the red line, and a blue arrow spanning the width of the blue line. The text 'Decal Square' and its specifications are located in the upper left corner of the white area.
